THE MANXMAN'S GOOD RACE.

Friday afternoon at Harlem was full of heat and dust. In four of the seven races the fields were so large that less than sharp interest was taken in them. The Manxman's clever race and "Cass" Sloan's powerful finish on Dousterswivel were the features.

The Manxman met Dave Waldo, Tom Collins and three others at six furlongs, and, with Caywood up, he was made a 1 to 3 chance. Waldo was hardly up to a bruising race, but had all of his speed and set a merry pace to the stretch. Then Caywood gave The Manxman his head, and he beat Dave Waldo as if he was a high class racehorse.

Dousterswivel was second choice to Czarowitz in the first race. He won by a narrow margin from Loyaletta. It was Sloan's good riding more than the quality of the horse that brought out the result.

Out of the seven races only three favorites won, and they were all odds-on favorites.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Lonny Clayton was at Hawthorne Thursday. Yesterday morning he went to Latonia where he will ride Ed Corrigan's Sardonic, in the Oaks today. Sardonic was shipped from Hawthorne Thursday night.

Richard J. is in the Realization at 106 pounds. There are a lot of turfmen who believe he would have a royal chance to win that big stake. The only point of uncertainty is whether he can go a mile and five furlongs. The colt seems to have quality enough to give Hamburg a tough task to beat him.

The stables of Sam Hildreth, W. M. Rogers, M. Jordan, T. M. Berry & Co., Tully Coulter and T. C. McDowell arrived from Harlem in the morning. Pat Dunne and Galen Brown got over from Hawthorne in the evening.

The Western Union Telegraph Company opened an office under the grand stand yesterday. Nine operators will be on duty there today.

Fifteen horses belonging to Baker & Gentry arrived yesterday morning from Cincinnati. In the band were Simon W., Rosinante and the highly esteemed filly, Hanlight. Trainer "Buck" Franklin remained at Latonia with Dan Rice and Uarda. The latter will start in the Latonia Oaks to-day. She and Dan Rice will land in Chicago Sunday morning. That consistent cripple, Simon W., is said to be sounder than he was a year ago.

Four carloads of yearlings, consigned to Woodward & Shanklin, and three horses in training, the property of Gus Strauss, arrived from Lexington, Ky., yesterday morning. They were unloaded at the Stock Yards, where the yearlings will be ready for inspection today and Sunday and will be sold Monday and Tuesday nights. The Strauss horses were walked over to Washington Park. A conspicuous figure among the trio was the 2-year-old, Greatland, the early spring star of his age in Kentucky. He is a heavily muscled, yet symmetrical colt, and looks in racing order. His companions were Claret Cup and Miss Chance. Owen Bradley had charge of the three. Bradley said of Greatland: "He was taken sick at Louisville and started when he should have been in the stable. He has had a let-up since that meeting, but has been galloped every day, and I believe him to be as good as ever. Anyhow I have entered him to run tomorrow and will not worry about what he has to meet."

W. H. Laudeman is back from New York. He saw the Suburban and did not back the winner. In his opinion the race was a good one although it would probably have been better but for the delay at the post. Bob Rose, he says, backed Tillo and got 15 and 20 to 1 against his money.

Lieber Karl's injury has been pronounced a spread foot. It will keep him out of training for a month or six weeks, after which he will probably be as good as ever. He is still suffering severe pain. The heel of the injured foot rarely rests on the floor of his stall. Usually the toe of the injured member is held tremulously against the straw beneath. Whenever he takes a step it is with a very pronounced limp.

Borgia is out of the Derby. His leg has filled above the pastern. A veterinarian says the colt's tendons are all right and there is no sign of lameness, but Mr. Boots is not satisfied that it is not a case of breakdown. "There is the swelling and a cause, and I would like to know what it is," said he. With respect to the chances of Borgia, if well, Mr. Boots said: "I still think the race would have been between Lieber Karl and my horse. Lieber Karl's work was excellent and it was really too bad he went lame. There was no doubt about my horse going the route, and the way he worked that mile in 1:42 Monday, gave me a lot of confidence. Now I don't expect to win anything. What I came for is gone. Lieber Karl's injury is similar to that sustained by The Roman last winter. It was five weeks after he became lame before The Roman could be galloped. Once or twice since he has pulled up a trifle lame, but has walked out of it. I have to use bar plates on him now. Ace was injured in like manner and they use bar plates on him. A lot of horses racing in California last winter had similar trouble and almost all of them are now wearing bar plates."

Three of the American Derby candidates were given comparatively strong work yesterday. Bannockburn was first given a moderate gallop of two miles. Then he was sent a mile in 1:44. He was rated along the first three-quarters in 1:20 and sent along the last quarter in :24. Speaking to Willie Martin about the colt, Sergeant McGuigan said: "He can run when he is right and I believe I'll have him fit tomorrow. I took a chance with him at St. Louis and found out he was not ready. Now I think he is ready. I sent him a mile and a half in 2:39 and he had nine ounces on each foot. I let him step along the first part of it and he was pretty tired the last part, just as I intended he should be. I like that work as well as anything any of the others have done. Since then I have galloped him enough to keep him in shape for tomorrow. But the trouble with him is that just when I get him fit he gets sick." Martin replied: "I know he's fast—of course he is." Then he pointed at a water tank being drawn around the upper turn and approaching the home stretch, and said: Say, Bill! you see where that tank is? Well, to-morrow when I get there, if the trunk isn't too heavy. I'll say ta ta." "You'll find that trunk too heavy before you get there," replied McGuigan.

Midian did the Derby course with H. Martin in the saddle. He worked nicely in 2:40. "He will go pretty well tomorrow," was a remark with which observers of the work generally agreed.

Pink Coat worked a mile and a quarter at Hawthorne Thursday in 2:11. He did it in a steady, easy manner. Having run a mile and a half last Saturday at St. Louis, Pat Dunne evidently thought a mile and a quarter sufficient preparation for today's event.

It was 3 o'clock in the afternoon when Isabey was given his final preparation. It was a mile from the seven furlongs post back. He did the first half in 52 and the last half in 51, slowed up at the finish. He was whizzing as he began rounding into the home stretch and Bob Tucker signalled the boy to check him. "That's a fast track. A good horse could run a fast mile over it," said Tucker as the horse was cooling. Then he added "This fellow is seasoned and fit and there can be no excuse for him. If it will rain it will suit him exactly. It might be hard on the Club but satisfactory to me."

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. Story Curtis is the last horseman to invade England with a string. He left New York on the Manitoba Saturday, with Method, a full brother to Ornament; Knight of the Rose, a full brother to The Huguenot and several others.

After the race in which Nuto ran second to Ben Ronald at Sheephead Bay Monday, D. Gideon claimed Nuto at the entered price, $1,500, and Bromley & Co. retaliated by claiming Leedsville who was entered at $500.

Baker & Gentry's strong stable will be shipped from Covington today. The horses will be raced at Washington Park until July 20, when they will be sold at public auction by Woodward & Shanklin.

W. G. Holmes, Chicago.—The charge for admission through the gate at Washington Park on American Derby day 1891 was $1. In 1893 and 1894 it was $2. It will be $2 this year.

Cincinnati report is to the effect that the good sprinter J. A. Gray is so lame as to be on the point of breaking down.

Some copies of the 1897 Goodwin's Guide are needed. A fair price will be paid for them at this office.

THE TWELFTH AMERICAN DERBY.

This is American Derby day. It is the fruition of hope long deferred. It means a vast deal to the turfmen of not alone the west but of the whole country. And Chicago will show in a very emphatic way today that its people of all kinds and classes rejoice exceedingly over the revival of Chicago's great race. The narrow-minded and microscopic class, the zeal of which in interfering with the business of the people, has, for some years past, robbed Chicago of the annual glories of American Derby day, should be carted to Washington Park to-day. Perhaps the spectacle of the pleasure, gaiety and enthusiasm of the brilliant assemblage of 40,000 or 50,000 people whose mighty uproar of applause will astonish the ears of the winner of the twelfth American Derby, might give a brief sense of shame to them.

Nothing but rain can now mar the success of the day and the race, and it only in a small measure. That the attendance will be huge is assured. The field that will contest the big race of the day is remarkably well balanced. The elimination of Plaudit and Lieber Karl takes away the only two horses with records, entitling them to pronounced favoritism. Of the nine colts left in, one, Traverser, will probably not start, but eight will be left in that apparently class so well together as to make it hard to say there is anyone without a chance to win as good as that of any of his opponents. The last two Derbys were won with ridiculous ease but it is quite probable that there will be a hotly contested finish at the end of today's race.

The St. Louis advices about Ed Farrell coming to race were discredited. Our St. Louis correspondent wired last night: "He will not start."

The other races today have well classed fields of speedy horses and will be sure to be sharply contested, but on such a day the Derby overshadows all else and they will, in comparison, be but little considered. The Derby horses, their owners, lineage, weights, jockeys who will ride them and the time recorded in their trials for the big race appear below.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Deceiver—Oasis.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Dousterswivel was best ridden. Sloan took the short route and rode a powerful finish. The colt is game and stood a long hard drive. Riders reversed Loyaletta would have won. The finish was weak. Czarowitz seems to be of no account. He had a clear path and no excuses. Olivia L. finished strong and would have been third in a few more strides. C. H. Whelan was sharply interfered with soon after the start. Paskola had a lot of bad luck. She and Bethlehem Star were both cut off several times. The Star ran a better race than the figures show.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Bermuda—Bettie C.
Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; the next three were driving. Pinar del Rio was a lot the best. She had to be to win. Jones got the filly shut off down the back stretch and also met with interference on the far turn. The filly was game, though, and when straightened away galloped over those in front of her on call. About the eighth she cut across from the outside to the rail. She was clear, though, and caused no trouble. Jack of Hearts is consistent. He was well handled and ran to the notch. Necedah made up a lot of ground the last quarter. Sidonian is a coward. He was sprawling all over the track at the finish. Idle Hour saved ground on the stretch turn and had a winning chance when straightened away. He quit when pinched. Del Paso II is dickey legged and dropped all the way. He is a bad betting tool. Hazelhatch ran a fair race.
Scratched—Banquo II, 108; Fresco, 107; Winslow, 107; Queen Safie, 101; Pitfall, 107; Double Dummy, 103.

Winner—Ch. f, by Silver Fox—Stefanette.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; the next two were driving hard. Foxnette got good handling and ran a clever race. It was form, too. She was away none too well, but Burns took matters easily and never made a move until he straightened away for home. Canace and Guess Me were both very tired at the end. The former bore in and interfered with Guess Me twenty yards from the wire. Mr. Johnson was also bumped and jostled. He had the worst kind of racing luck and ran a good race. Tab this colt. Boney Boy showed a sharp turn of speed. Rosa L. ran a poor race. It was far out of line. Flamaro was much used at the post. Buena Ventura found the track too hard and would not extend herself.
Scratched—Nellie Fonso, 101; Musket, 96; Nora Ives, 98; Stella, 93; Josephine B, 110; Abide, 110; The Sun, 96; Mizouara, 107.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Tyrant—Bianca.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Hard drive for the place. The Manxman is in first-class form and will take a lot of beating at three quarters. He has class as he is. Mistral II ran a good race under a strong ride. Thorpe laid away with him to the stretch and came with a rush in the last furlong. Dave Waldo had plenty of speed, but was short. He has had little or no work since his last race race on account of sickness. This fellow is consistent and always runs a good race. Tom Collins ran below the mark. Tab him for mud only. Miss Casey and incidental were outclassed.
Scratched—Balivero, 91; Bernardillo, 104; Afamada, 89.
Overweights—Mistral II, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. f, 4, by St. Blaise—Active.
Off at first break to a good start. Won hand ridden; second and third driving. Donna Rita outlasted her field. She got away well on her stride and was never extended, although Caywood lunched her a bit the last sixteenth. Graziella did all she could. Burns rode her nicely and she ran a clever race. Treeby ran her race and had plenty of early speed. Jay Bird—heavily played to be third—was poorly handled. Millie M. ran a fair race.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Carnegie—Banana.
Post 14 minutes. Start good. Won handily; the next three were busy. Enchanter had his usual bad temper and also his sharp turn of speed. He was the cause of the delay and eventually got a running start. The Tory ran a cracking good race. This fellow is good now and should never be overlooked in cheaper company. Zamar II. did not run his race. He, though, is a bad horse nowadays. Weird is fast, but had no staying ability. Tab Fair Deceiver. Carrie F. ran a good race.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Topgallant—Essay.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second with something left after an early drive; third and fourth doing their best. Topmast was by far the best, and in an easy spot. Thorpe trailed in behind Nellie Baker until the stretch and went to the front when ready. Hosi got the kind of handling he needs. Burns punished him hard all the way. He is a loafer. Nathanson hardly ran to the notch. He was off in a bad position though and that accounts for it. Rose also got the colt interfered with several times and let him swerve in the stretch. Nellie Baker is a sprinter only. She ran her race the first three-quarters.
Scratched—Patron, 100; Bellicos, 114.
